

SEMINAR ON GENDER EQUALITY

On February 14, 2024, Sociology Department organized a seminar on gender equality. Miss Gracy Newmai, a distinguished alumna from the first batch, currently serving in the Education Department Government of Nagaland, shared insights on the importance of gender equality in societal structures. The seminar proved to be an enlightening and thought-provoking event for both students and faculty.

