DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

REPORT ON NEIGHBOURHOOD YOUTH PARLIAMENTARY SESSION

2nd March, 2024

A profound parliamentary session, facilitated by the NYKs was organised with a focus on the vital themes of Narishakti and Vocal for Local. The event in the district, Peren was meticulously coordinated by the college, spearheaded by the Political Science Department.

While the Government of Nagaland initiated the program, the college, under the coordination of the Political Science Department, played a pivotal role in its successful execution within the district.

Special guest, Sir Kangba Andrew, Assistant Professor from Peren Government College Political Science Department, delivered a subdued expression on women empowerment (Narishakti) and the imperative to advocate for local products (Vocal for Local). The insightful session, moderated by Clare, witnessed active participation and vibrant discussions among the attendees.

The program commenced with the dignified arrival of Speaker Mazhiikho Augustine Sapriina, followed by the presidential speech setting the tone for the deliberations. The commencement by the speaker marked the official initiation of the session, ushering in a platform for robust discussion.

The event transitioned through the presentation of the issues, an open discussion that encouraged active participation, a formal voting process, and the momentous declaration of the bill. The inclusion of questions directed towards the participants further enriched the interactive nature of the session, fostering a dynamic exchange of ideas.

In his concluding remarks, Sir Gaikulung Andrew Panmei, Asst. Professor Dept of History emphasized the collaborative efforts between the government and educational institutions, underlining the shared responsibility in addressing societal challenges. The event showcased a harmonious blend of regional governance and academic insight, creating a holistic platform for dialogue.

Miss Kevichiiseii Agnes, Head of the Political Science Department, extended gratitude during the vote of thanks, acknowledging the collaborative spirit that ensured the event's success. Certificates were awarded to participants, recognizing not only their academic contributions but also their active involvement in a program that exemplified the harmonious synergy between governmental initiatives and educational institutions.

The parliamentary session at St. Xavier College, Jalukie, officially concluded on 2nd March 2024, under the adept guidance of Speaker Augustine. The gathering, comprising 32 enthusiastic students, unfolded with a structured agenda structuring the format of a parliamentary session.
