

Theatrical Day

The Department of English organized a Theatrical Day, centered around the iconic play 'Romeo and Juliet' by William Shakespeare, on the 26th March 2024 at 12:30 p.m. in the College Auditorium.

The event commenced with a warm welcome note from Lungheranging, the Department Coordinator, setting the stage for an enriching cultural experience. An exhortation from the Principal, Rev. Dr. Fr. Francis S Cheerangal added prestige to the event, emphasizing the importance of literature and performing arts in holistic education.

The highlight of the event was a captivating performance of 'Romeo and Juliet' which enamored the audience with its emotive portrayal of love and tragedy.

Adding touch of cultural diversity, an American classic Dance was performed. An operatic interlude enthralled the audience with its melodious harmonies and powerful vocals. A mesmerizing couple dance captivated the audience and a colorful Indian Dance added vibrancy and cultural richness to the event highlighting the diversity of artistic expression.

The event concluded with a note of gratitude from Miss Heigunlungle H Anastasia, HOD of the Department of English. The Theatrical Day, celebrating 'Romeo and Juliet' was a resounding success which not only entertained but also inspired reflection and appreciation for the enduring legacy of Shakespeare's masterpiece.
